(4) NAME PORTFOLIO

Enter portfolio name in box that displays at the top left, and click OK. Spaces and symbols are allowed.

(5) DEPOSIT CASH

Click Deposit.

Enter the current date. Enter the amount $500,000, an over-exaggerated amount to enable students to experience impact. Click *Add to portfolio. Notes section is optional. Our project deposits cash one time only. Never will our project withdraw cash.

(6) VIEW

Create portfolio in Performance view. Click Performance.

Portfolio value:				+210.00 (0.04%)		$16,169.00	$493,996.00	-$6,004.00

Transactions View

Teachers, transactions view allows you to monitor student portfolio activity. It displays every transaction detail—type, date, shares, price, etc. This is a way for you to monitor student activity if you wish. Consider having students print this page from time to time to monitor student activity. Our project does not require this step. (Optional)

(7) PURCHASE STOCKS

- (a) Enter symbol or start typing company name. Possible company names and their exchanges pop up. Be certain to click company name from the list (rather than typing the symbol). CAUTION: Verify the exchange is in the USA. (NYSE or NASDAQ) Then, click Add to portfolio.

Add symbol: + Add transaction data

Google automatically populates the data; but no shares of stock have been purchased yet, and cash has not been affected.

Repeat steps (a) and (b) for each stock purchase. There are two methods to purchase stocks. Enter all the stocks first, step (a), and then go back and enter the data, step (b). Or, follow the steps in (a) - (b) order. Also, you can delete a stock entered in step (a) if you choose not to purchase it.

(8) DELETE STOCK FROM PORTFOLIO

During the initial portfolio setup, it is okay to delete a stock. A box displays to the left of each stock name. To delete a stock from the portfolio, click the box and then click Delete above the Name column. During the tracking time, it is not okay to delete a stock; rather, students may sell stock following the initial setup.

The edit screen displays in Transactions view.

Students may edit portfolios during the initial portfolio set up or when purchasing new stocks. For example, the number of shares can be adjusted. Or, if the wrong cash amount was entered, this is where to make that correction. During tracking, students may buy additional shares or sell existing shares. This is not editing.

Make edits, and click Save changes. Google returns portfolio to Performance view.
